

Lewis County Board of Education Acceptable Use Policy Agreement

Student Acceptable Use Agreement

In support of the Lewis County Board of Education's mission of providing outstanding learning opportunities, the Lewis County Board of Education provides technology and electronic communication devices (TECD), networking, and information resources to the public schools in Lewis County. This open access is a privilege. Usage is not a right and may be rescinded at any time. It requires individual users to act responsibly, conserve resources, and consider the rights and privacy of others. All existing federal and state laws, board regulations and policies apply, including laws and regulations that are specific to TECD, networks, the internet, email; as well as those that are applicable to personal conduct.

After reading the Lewis County Board of Education Technology Policy and State of West Virginia Policy 2460, please complete this form to indicate that you agree with the terms and conditions outlined. The signatures of both the student and parent/guardian are mandatory before access to computer resources will be granted. This document, which incorporates the policy, reflects the entire agreement and understanding of all parties. One form shall be signed annually and kept on file at the student's school. (Circle One)

Parent/Guardian Acceptable Use Agreement

As parent/legal guardian of the student signing below, I grant permission for my child to access TECD resources both stand-alone and networked. These resources may include, but are not limited to, computers, iPods, iPads, peripheral devices, academic software, library catalogs, magazines, encyclopedias, databases, email, internet, and intranets. I have read and agree to the terms and conditions set forth in the Lewis County Board of Education Policy and State of West Virginia Policy 2460, and I understand that I may be held responsible for violations by my child. I understand that some materials on the internet may be objectionable; therefore, I agree to accept responsibility for guiding my child, and conveying to her/him appropriate standards for selecting, sharing, and/or exploring information and media. I understand that all internet use by my child will be under direct teacher supervision and monitored as any other classroom activity. (Circle One)
